

DREAMS BECOMING A REALITY

A REPORT ON SOFT SKILLS TRAINING PROGRAMME

Working on this Soft Skills Training report has made to realise not only how rich and diverse a Teacher's work is, but also how much it contributes to the achievement of the millennium development goals and education reform agendas. Their promotion and services is also making a powerful contribution to the achievement of student's employability objectives.

Imparting the right knowledge makes the person blossom. The pleasure in seeing the effort bear fruit in various forms of excellence is a heartening emotion.

ABOUT THE INSTITUTION

Government Arts College is a 160 year old institution, what was started as an Anglo – Vernacular school in 1852 by the then Coimbatore District Collector, Mr. Thomas, has now blossomed into a full-fledged post graduate research institution. The college became an autonomous college in the year 1987. The National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) rated the college as a four star college in 1999 and as an 'A' Grade college at the time of reaccreditation in 2006. A majority of students hail from the socially and economically disadvantaged sections in the society.

SOFT SKILLS TRAINING AND PLACEMENT CENTRE

Soft Skills training is imparted to students to complement the hard skills, which are the technical requirements for a job. Soft Skills training program is a sort of value addition to the programmes offered in the college to make education really holistic. Orientation given to the students in Soft Skills make them face any interview board with tremendous confidence. This training facilitates students to take up a rewarding career. A SOFT SKILLS TRAINING FORUM 'கனவு மெய்ப்பட வேண்டும்' has been established in our college to bridge a gap between the students' participants and the rising expectations of the employers. The forum conducts soft skill training programmes for students to make them find greener pastures easily.

The soft skills development and placement centre came into being on 3rd August 2010. This centre lays emphasis on development of communication skills of students. They are trained to be more orative and are also given orientation for improving their oratory skills. Students are able to present their profile very effectively and effortlessly to their prospective employers. Soft skills training program is otherwise called 'LIFE SKILLS for Employability'. The main objective of the programme is to help students face challenges of life with ease.

The programme focuses on the following areas:

- Facility with language
- Personality traits
- Social graces
- Creativity
- Friendliness, and
- Optimism that mark people to varying degrees.

To achieve the above the following programmes have been designed,

- Sessions on Ice-Breaking
- Strategies for generating interest among students
- Group Discussions
- How to make Presentation Effective?
- Working in Groups
- How to manage difficult Participants?

The course is designed in such a way that the participants get actively involved in all programmes. Students are given a well balanced training programme. Encouragement is given to individual participation. It creates an atmosphere of self-confidence and friendliness. Each participant's performance is observed closely. The use of learning games creates a serious but relaxed atmosphere for the student participants.

TRAINING PROGRAMMEES

Our College runs on shift system. Among 5300 students of 23 departments in our college to start with we focussed on the second year students of under graduate courses and provided training for one year. For the past three years all the final year undergraduate students are trained for 15 days, 30 sessions on fast track.

SOFT SKILLS TRAINING PROGRAMME

The selection of participants was based on their willingness. Attendance was generally punctual, and participation was active and full. Discipline was guided by ground rules which the class agreed on. And it was followed well. A certificate was designed and printed for the participants.

1. TRAINERS

The Soft Skills training programme is handled by soft skill trainers drawn from the college as well as outside. The soft skill trainers worked with a high sense of commitment. In identifying people those who are interested to train these students, we found

The alumni of the Soft Skills centre have planned to implement the following activities.

- i. To train the juniors*
- ii. To conduct a fast track courses for final year students*
- iii. Extension activities*

CONCLUSION

The training overall was a tremendous success. The training imparted has brought a great transformation in the students. Soft Skill Trainers are to be complimented for transforming ordinary students into extraordinary students. A network of Soft Skill Trainers, with a high sense of responsibility and commitment, has been created. With a bit of encouragement, the network should make impact in terms of coverage and helping appreciably public attitudes to the students. The team deserve special commendation for excellent work.

The SOFT SKILL TRAINING FORUM has a dream. It is the dream that makes everyone goes ahead. The Forum is pursuing its dream - ensuring 100% placement with passion. The SOFT SKILL TRAINING FORUM is optimistic about the actualisation of the dream. A follow-up training programme will consolidate the gains and help to advance further the professional standards of students. This would certainly also have long-term positive implications for general standards in our College.

The most beautiful thing about the class room is the U shaped arrangement of chairs and all the quotes which hangs on the wall which always refreshes the mind . Every new day entering into the ss class makes us feel like journey to an mysterious island where new tasks are waiting for us with full of excitement. It made me realise how to take people along with us . So not only ourself but others also get benefited and learn things.. Team work , aptitude solving , ability to handle situations, be happy , thinking crazy and different, know the importance of life . celebrations, a feel of being bonded to help each other.. it makes me remember a quote "where there is a will there is a way" it's the will for everyone who enters into the soft skill centre will sure have a way to pursue their dreams and be successful

We have improved the skills we have in the soft skill centre. Who ever uses their skills they are perfect humans in the world. Every one has the skills. Many people in this society do not know how to get. Skills are not only useful for job opportunities. Learning how to behave in the community beyond what is beyond the capabilities. Our soft skill centre is to develop skills. If we improve our skills there will be no social crimes. Everyday education is present in terms of employment capabilities with the ability to work. How to talk to any one and how behave in the areas of learning.

Hi mam, this is Mohamed Siddiq M, 2015- 2016 batch soft skills class student. Wish you a very good day. Happiness is speaking about soft skills class' experiences. Thinking of those days, it is definitely a great pleasure.

To say openly, I am a guy who just know only books and pens before coming to soft skills class. I don't know anything about this open world. I am not exposed to any kind of situations and I haven't had a touch stone for my inbuilt talents.

As I believe everything which has a beginning has a full stop, one day when I was about to enter my second year of UG, my seniors introduced me to a special class named "SOFT SKILLS TRAINING AND PLACEMENT CENTRE", conducted by a professor Mrs. Suguna of maths department. First I thought it would be like a spoken English classes. But with utter curiosity in knowing what is there, I went to the first class. In the first class, mam said to introduce ourselves to everyone. I was the first person to introduce myself on the dais. The very first class brought me some soft skills within me. They are being initiatives and facing audience boldly. So the class looked to me like legendary and life changing.

I then understood this is the gift from God. I seized the opportunity. Within a couple of weeks my mom noticed a little change in myself. My staffs and friends saw it within a month. I go to soft skills class earlier and I will actively participate in all the activities given in the class and when I leave, I will be cool, calm and composed without any problems. Also soft skills class is the only class were I have laughed a lot and enjoyed to the core in all of my life.

Every day in a soft skills class in a new day of learning and every day is worth mentioning. The transition I say is not like a guy with a bicycle, owns a helicopter. It is like a guy who is confined to his bed throughout his life and gets up and run in a hundred-meter dash and grabs a gold medal. I was nothing before soft skills class and after soft skills class, I am something special.

I have been congratulated by many of the top persons I meet for my behaviour, attitude, way of approach, communication skills, confidence level, leadership qualities, etc. I was once interviewed in All India Radio Station about soft skills and got the program telecasted. All the credits go to soft skills class.

I tried to exploit each and every thing I can get from the soft skills class. I didn't have a feel of sadness, guilty, missing something, etc. when I left soft skills class. I was very much happier when I completed the class, having a feel of accomplished something in life and used a good gift without wasting it. I still miss soft skills class as a student. I am very much proud of being a soft skills student.

Currently, I am doing my PG, chemistry, at PSG CAS. I am in an internship at Indra Gandhi Centre for Atomic Research (IGCAR), kalpakkam for 45 days. It is a central government internship where only 25 students get selected from all over India via marks, write ups, interviews, etc. This happened only because of soft skills class. Without those 'Hardwork, sincerely, dedication, ... so on are the things for the success, which I learnt and using in my regular day life from this class. I think this class started on 23rd July 2018. I don't know how it went on. When I'm entering this class with disinterest, I thought it was a usual class. But the ongoing classes taught me that I want to enrich myself with knowledge and hardwork to taste the fruit of success'. Then, I started to enjoy the class. Every class left an impact on me and pushed me to run behind the success. This class made me to fix my goal. It didn't make me to only. It also taught me how to move towards my aim. Actually, this is very nice to think about my little enrichment. Now, also, I'm working towards my

At first I would like to thank to this college and for our department staffs to allow for this soft skill training programme. And a special thanks to Dr. Suguna
mam. who took a major role and a co-ordinator of this course. I am so ~~grateful~~ grateful for all your efforts and for the training. The time that I spend on this class was really awesome and unforgettable. Everyday
I started realising myself and I understand the level that I had been. This class is a great chance to improve myself and also my life skill and others.
I had learned a lot and lot of things in this and

The soft skill one year training programme I learned many things regarding skill, like resume writing, group discussion and overall view about placement centre. In addition to that speaking skill and listening skills, writing skills and presentation skill many things were learned by us. I had handled more than 5 training sessions that helps me to transfer a lot. Then people were went to Kangayam Govt School to spread and motivate some knowledge about skill and hard and bold touch etc were thought to children. In soft skill centre providing placement class for 1st year. In that session also I handled for them about listening skills.

I am now enough taking so many sessions there by missing my soft skill class and other classes also. Thank-you for this wonderful opportunity given by Dr. Suguna mam, Mathematics Department, Govt Arts college.

One of the best thing I done in 2nd year is attending this soft skill class. Thank you so much mam! for ^{giving} this opportunity. This class give me a lot of memorable things and I see the many different people in this class and I get many different friends in this class. I learn many things in this class like to make teamwork, how to attend an interview, how to make group discussion, communication skills, motivating thoughts, non-verbal communication more and more I learn from this class. Many trainees learn many things. First I had a stage fearness & its gone because of soft skill.

Including drama, playing games I remember my childhood days.

When I first come to this class I'm not as much interested in this class. But now I'm very happy. If I not attend this class I miss some great opportunities in my life.

But know I feel very sorrow for because soft skill class is going to end! I miss this class very much mam!

Soft skill

Through this soft skill class, I overcame stage fear. Now I don't have fear of spectators of me when I ~~on~~ the dias.

Second thing is I got good friends circle. Then I improved my creativity.

Then I prepared myself to be ready to do any tasks. I can lead anything now (I can appear). I understood ^{that} ~~how~~ ^a how we have behave within groups and also individual.

I learned some qualities like leadership quality, public speaker quality and also a soft person quality. I mean how to react with others.

Now I am ready to do volunteer work when job was ~~give~~ committed by me. And I can speak something on the spot topic.

I took class as a trainee in soft skill class. Through this I know that I can take a class without boring and I control the class.

In this class we talked more. We gave answers without hesitation, it may right or wrong we didn't bother about that.

Soft skills which class I improve my intrapersonal skills like Interview skills, Logical Reasoning, Public speaking, Listening, Creativity and etc... First time I enter the soft skills, I was very struggling because I have lot of stage fear. In Now a days, I don't have stage fear. Because, the soft skills training centre polishes me. I like Role plays in the session of classes. Because, lot of different characters and dialogues are attracting and some moral about the plays. I like Suguna Mam class. She was one of the Noble person. Because, the class and the Mam changes lot of skills in myself. Lot of Trainees handling the wonderful classes of soft skills like Uma Madam, Muthu Annamalai Mam, she handled the story class. I was very enjoy in that class. The Benda palli story was wonderful. Dr. Ravi Sankar, Mr. Basha Sir, Ms. Kavya, Seniors like Mani, Anna, Kanimozhi, chithra sister handled the all the classes are so useful for me. Last of the working days. The classes taking by soft skills

Igniting minds

Pankaja Srinivasan

COIMBATORE: "Every good teacher has a bit of Kalam in him or her, and there is more than a bit of him in P. Suguna." Wing Commander (retired) Sivakumar was moved to say this at a gathering at Government Arts College on August 16.

It was a meeting of students who had passed through the portals of maths professor Ms. Suguna's soft skills classroom. Five years ago, she started free soft skill training to help students who, she says, come from Below Poverty Line families. Many of them also come from Tamil Medium schools which puts them at a disadvantage while attending job interviews.

On the occasion, the students spoke about how the after-college-hours classes set them firmly on their way to a better life. Many of them are now working in multi-national companies, are research scholars, bankers and teachers. "I was like a pencil with no tip. I was sharpened here," said Prashanth. There was laughter when Balaji said that he started out with just four English words - 'Aah, Ohh, Yes and No'. Rakesh Kumar confessed that he could at last muster up enough courage to speak to girls! Kavya felt she was on a journey to the mysterious island...While they laughed at themselves, teased their college mates and horsed around, there was no denying the underlying note of gratitude and relief. "I began to look outside my own life," was the common refrain. "I was fired up here," was another. "I not only learnt to speak, but also to tuck my shirt in," said Vinod in all seriousness.

Some of these students come from homes where alcoholism, abuse and hopelessness are a way of life. Some are first generation literates. Ms. Suguna recognised that these students needed a little help to give them a fighting chance in life. She wanted them to shrug off the 'under-privileged' tag. They have done that going by the bright smiles and enormous confidence they exude. Almost all of them have one thing to say - "We learnt things about ourselves that we did not know before." They now dare to dream.

Ms. Suguna invites professionals to address and motivate her students. "My network is growing. So many people have come forward to help these children," she says. To know more, write to sugunadevadas@yahoo.com

It all adds up

P. Suguna who teaches Mathematics at the Government Arts College goes that extra mile to help her students by offering them free soft skill training after college hours

PANKAJA SRINIVASAN

We are at the mathematics department at the Government Arts College, watching as new equations emerge. Not mathematical ones, but social ones. Thirty-odd students from various disciplines sit cross-legged on the floor listening intently to the speaker, who is telling them about 'assertive communication'.

The lecture is a part of an initiative by Dr. P. Suguna of the mathematics department who realised that soft-skill training would provide the much needed leg-up to some students of the college. "A lot of them come from economically and socially deprived communities, and they want to improve their lives. I remember wondering why so many of my students came to class distracted, tired and sleepy, even in the first period. They told me it was because they did not get enough rest. They worked jobs that kept them up late. After college, these kids go out to make a living. Some of them are the only breadwinners of their family. They wait at tables, give tuitions, are watchmen, and shop assistants. Then, they have problems at home — alcoholism, abuse, poverty and ill health." Suguna says it is easy for people to say: 'Read newspapers every day, you will improve your communication skills'. "They do not have the couple of rupees required to buy that newspaper, and if they did, they would rather buy a banana and eat that."

Suguna decided to help them get a foothold in life. She was inspired by her mentor, the late L.G. Varadaraj.

"He instituted a creative teaching course. He always said that teachers should make a difference and think beyond classrooms and textbooks. He is the reason I started this programme," she says.

Students learn about communication, creativity, counselling and value education. The classes are free. They are held year-long and there are also shorter capsules. Suguna is justifiably proud of these young men and women. "Some from the earlier batches are placed in companies such as TCS, WIPRO and Ford. Some have enrolled for further studies. One of them, Pradeepa, an IAS aspirant, is now a Junior Assistant in the School Education department. They have a goal now. They feel transformed," says Suguna.

Wing Commander (Retired) Sivakumar, who has interacted with these students, lauds the programme. "The attempt is to make them job-worthy. Some of them are diffident. It is important to develop their communication skills; teach them how to conduct themselves in an interview; make them aware of their body language..."

He feels that with a little more structure and streamlining, the impact will be much more.

Dr. Srividya, who also works with these students, says it is an admirable venture. "Being a teacher myself, more than the students, it is the effort of the teacher that I admire. Here she is taking initiative, rallying students, staff and friends and doing what a teacher should do — inspire. As for the students, more than the benefits of communication and job skills, it is knowing that a person genuinely cares for them and is willing to go the extra mile for them, is what gives them the impetus to be better people."

Suguna invites people from across professions to mingle with her students. They include, Dr. Balamurali from Ganga Hospital, Dr. Gururajan, retired IIT professor; Bhuma Varadarajan, director, Fiducial Solutions, Dr. Uma Devi who teaches MBA at Bharathiar University and Dr. P.E. Thomas of the department of Communication and Media Studies, also from Bharathiar University.

Suguna says that apart from these generous people, many of her own colleagues at Government Arts College have given her unstinting support. "I am grateful to our Principal Dr. R. Kumaresan for his encouragement. Without all these people, the course would have got nowhere." Suguna is very, very proud of another fact. These students are already paying it forward as they go to an under-resourced school near Tirupur and teach the underprivileged children there.

An appeal: Suguna says: We provide Soft Skills Training to only 100 students or so. My dream is to train all the 1500 students in the campus every year so that they are employable once they leave college. But we need more trainers to volunteer their time. Students from BPL families study here. Their fee is Rs. 500 per semester. Even this is sometimes beyond their means. They will be grateful for any help they can get.
